II. Accounting period and currency used in accounting:

1. Annual accounting period: From 01 January to 31 December each year.

2. Accounting currency: Vietnamese Dong (VND).

III. Accounting standards and accounting regime applied:

1. Accounting regime applied: Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014 of the Ministry of Finance.

2. Statement of compliance with accounting standards and accounting regime.

IV. Accounting policies applied:

1. Principle for translation of financial statements prepared in a foreign currency into Vietnamese Dong (In cases where the accounting currency is different from Vietnamese Dong)

2. Principle for recognition of cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, demand deposits, and short-term financial investments that are highly liquid, readily convertible into known amounts of cash, and subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

3. Principle for recognition of inventories:

- Inventory recognition principle: Inventories are measured at cost. Where the cost of inventories is higher than their net realizable value, inventories are measured at net realizable value. The cost of inventories includes direct material costs, direct labor costs, and manufacturing overheads, if any, incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

- Method for inventory valuation: Weighted average cost method.

- Inventory accounting method: Perpetual inventory system.

- Provision for inventory write-down: In accordance with current regulations.

Owners' contributed capital is recognized based on the actual capital contributed by shareholders. The distribution of the Company's profits is carried out in accordance with resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

5. Principle and method for revenue recognition:

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when all of the following five conditions are simultaneously satisfied:

- + The Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards associated with ownership of the products or goods to the buyer;
- + The Company no longer retains managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership of the goods nor effective control over the goods;
- + Revenue can be measured reliably;
- + The Company is probable to obtain economic benefits from the sales transaction;
- + The costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the sales transaction can be measured reliably.
